The private software company is expanding its footprint into a new a four-story, 100,000-square-foot building located at 3443 Long Beach Boulevard. The building, which is being built by Urbana Development, will be accompanied by a new parking garage with space for up to 343 vehicles.

Studio One Eleven is designing the project, which incorporates elements of Mid-Century Modern architecture, such as large windows and terrace decks to provide natural lighting and large, contiguous workspaces.

The project, which is targeting LEED Gold certification, was on pace for completion in 2021 at the time of its groundbreaking.
