

Subject: Gazettes Morning News For Long Beach - A Business Report Wednesday
Date: Tuesday, June 24, 2014 11:41:39 AM Pacific Daylight Time
From: Cameron Andrews <cameron@piercomm.com>
To: Cameron Andrews <cameron@piercomm.com>

From: Gazettes.com <sgrieve@gazettes.com>
Date: March 19, 2014 at 7:14:27 AM PDT
To: <kraigk@dlba.org>
Subject: Morning News For Long Beach - A Business Report Wednesday
Reply-To: <sgrieve@gazettes.com>

Find us on Facebook

Follow us on  twitter

View our videos on  YouTube

Douglas Park Medical Offices Break Ground

A major construction project broke ground Saturday at Douglas Park, with Mayor Bob Foster and other leaders putting ceremonial shovels in the dirt to make way for a 90,000-square-foot Medical Office Park.

Dunkin' Donuts Drive-Thru Faces Another Hurdle

Although plans for a Dunkin' Donuts drive-thru were approved earlier this month by the Long Beach Planning Commission, at least one appeal has been filed and the project now will have to win approval by the City Council.

BUSINESS BEAT: Blue Windows Milestone; Schneider In "Sharing The Rough"

An eclectic Shore gift shop marks 15 years while a downtown jewelry designer makes his big screen debut.